

MENTOR SCI PG 30(1-10)

1. The sharing of components of environments by plants and animals is called Interdependence.
2. All animals on plants for food either directly or indirectly.
3. Give three examples of animals that indirectly depend on plants for food. Jaguar, Lion, Tiger.
4. The natural home of an animal or plant is called habitat.
5. What are the two main importance of shade to other plants? Protection from strong sunlight, Preserving the moisture content in the soil.
6. Parasitic plants feed directly on living plants. Give two examples. Lichen, dodder.
7. Plants with weak stems need support from other strong stem. State the three features of such plants. Hooks, thorns and tendrils.
8. Give two examples of decomposers. Mushroom and Puffball.
9. The diagram shown below shows special features called Tendrils.
It is a modified leaf.
10. Plant that depend on decaying food from dead plants are called saprophytes.

CORRECTIONS

8. Give two examples of decomposers. Bacteria, Fungi and worms
3. Give three example of animals that indirectly depend on plants for food. Carnivores.