

APPOSITIVES

-The commas in the above sentences show the relationship between two subsequent noun phrases that follow each other. The phrase refer to the same person or thing.

-We use commas to separate such noun phrases that refer to the same thing or person

-When commas are used this way,they are known as commas in apposition

SLE PG 55 EXERCISE

1. Mrs Mjanja, one of the adjudicators at the final, was very critical of some of the performances.
2. Makini School, this year's Nairobi County representatives, performed a riveting play.
3. "Beba Msalaba Wako", the winning Kiswahili play, was performed by Taita Taveta Primary School.
4. Korr Primary School, a school from a remote part of Kenya, arrived just on time.
5. Some of the audience, tired of waiting for the results, started leaving the auditorium.

Commas in list

-Commas are also used to separate items in a list.

- We put commas after every item except the last one, where we put and or or between the last two items.

SLE PG 56 EXERCISE

1. Kabaa boys school had participants in coral verse, set piece, on composition and play during the County's festival.
2. The directors, choreographers, stage manager, competitors and audience held their breath as the winners in own composition, Mbooni Primary School were announced.
3. The adjudicators, unanimously, decided that Francis and Beatrice were the best actor and actress respectively.
4. Next year, the Kenya national schools and colleges drama festival,will be held at the Kiambu Institute Of Science and Technology, Kiambu County.
5. The winners gala, performed for the president and other dignitaries, was held at state house, Nairobi from half past two in the afternoon.
6. Once the props backgrounds and lights are settled, the play will begin.
7. Mukisa,the stage manager, enjoys during his job during important celebrations
8. The costumes worn by the characters in the opera "Joseph's multicoloured coat" performed by Catholic Parochial School, correctly depicted ancient culture.
9. Lwak Girls, Butere Secondary, Wetlands primary, Cost Girls and St Mary's mosochi were to perform in that order.
10. Susan,the little girl from Kisumu Primary School,can easily win the best soloist,the best dancer and the adjudicator's award.