

SLE PG 98 USE OF NOMINAL + PRESENT PARTICIPLE

Nominal – connected with noun or nouns.

Participle – a word formed by a verb, ending in -ing or -ed, -en, etc.

1. The scouts collected as many eggs as they could find.
2. We played football until the sun went down.
3. The school on stage danced with joy and happiness.
4. The little baby cried as he waited for his mother to come.
5. The family smiled nicely when they were taken a photo.
6. Grandmother sewed for us some woolly, warm sweaters for the cold season.
7. We watched some television as the rain poured heavily.
8. We ran all around the compound trying to catch each other.
9. I watched the actor on the stage.
10. I wondered if I was leading in the class in Exams.