

MENTOR SCI PG 47 PE 5.3

1. Which method of controlling parasites controls both internal and external parasites?
Rotational grazing
2. Chemicals used in cattle dip are called acaricide
3. Spraying is done in a structure called crush
4. Giving medicines orally to control parasites is called deworming
5. Name two methods used to control external parasites only. Spraying and Dipping
6. The giving of liquid medicine to control parasites is called drenching.
7. List down two methods of controlling intestinal parasites only. Deworming and Proper sanitation
8. Maintenance of cleanliness and proper disposal of waste is called proper sanitation
9. The giving of solid medicine is called dosing and it is done using a bolus gun.
10. A mixture of water and acaricides is called dip wash is also called dipping.

Correction

10. A mixture of water and acaricides is called dip wash is also called plunge.