

SLE PG 71-72 EXERCISE – USE OF BOTH/BOTH OF

1. Both the young and the old go to the county library. Both of them go to the county library.
2. Both Matano and Lena went to the library in the afternoon. Both of them went in the library in the afternoon.
3. Both the pupils and the staff must not make noise in the library. Both of them must not make noise in the library.
4. Both the chair and the table have to be taken to the library. Both of them have to be taken to the library.
5. Both the deputy head teacher and the librarian punished the boy who damaged the book. Both of them punished the boy who damaged the book.
6. Both the shelves and the floor must be cleaned every day. Both of them must be cleaned every day.
7. Both Standard Seven and Standard Eight pupils have to go to the School library every Saturday Morning. Both of them have to go to the School library every Saturday Morning.
8. Both the rules and regulations must be obeyed at all times. Both of them must be obeyed at all times.
9. Both Anila and Akila like reading newspapers. Both of them like reading newspapers.
10. Both the computer and the television are switched off. Both of them are switched off.

SLE PG 73 EXERCISE – USE OF DIRECT SPEECH

1. The headteacher said, "This is our new librarian"
2. "May I borrow your storybook?" requested Kalawa.
3. "Do not enter the library with sweaters and jackets," said Mrs Kazungu.
4. "Watch out! The shelf is about to fall," cautioned the cleaner.
5. "I will record that book in the register," the librarian said.
6. "If you damage the books, you will pay a fine," said Miss Magwa.
7. "Both Moraa and Siloma are in the library," Matano told Lena.
8. "Does he have to go to the library every day?" Salmon asked.
9. "She doesn't have to return the books next week," the headteacher said.
10. "What website are you visiting?" the head teacher asked.