

SLE PG 83 EXERCISE

1. If officers in the control room were alert, they could notice suspicious cars.
2. If the alarm went off immediately, most disasters could be avoided.
3. If the ambulances arrived on time , a lot of people would have been saved.
4. If the builders constructed stronger buildings, most disasters could be avoided.
5. If the lifesavers worked hard, a lot of people could be saved.
6. If the officers in the control room were alert, they could notice terrorists entering the country.
7. If there was better security at the airport, they could notice suspicious cars.
8. If the ambulances arrived on time, the injured persons could be rushed to hospital.
9. If the builders constructed stronger buildings, most disasters could be avoided.
10. If officers in the control room were alert, a lot of people could be saved

Correction

2. If the lifesavers worked hard, most disasters would have been avoided.